Leia Morning will be performing a one-woman production on Artemisia Gentileschi, born in Rome in 1593 and trained to paint by her father Orazio Gentileschi. Artemisia is “the first documented woman in Western history to fulfill our concept of artistic genius,” according to art historian Mary D.

Garrard. Artemisia’s early paintings were influenced by the chiaroscuro naturalism of Caravaggio, which feature Biblical narratives and are often striking for the violence portrayed.

Painting by Artemisia Gentileschi

Leia’s productions have been seen throughout California in theatres, universities, secondary schools, clubs, museums, and libraries. More information is available on the gallery website.

Performance will be at 7:00pm.
