What's new at the Arbor art classes?

We are proud to announce three new items that will enhance the progress of students in our painting classes.

- Color checker – to enhance accuracy
- Space divider – very accurate transfer of material from a photograph to a canvas
- Oil H2O – paint that is water soluble and soap and water clean-up

New canvases are available in our classes ranging from linen to different polyester sizes to black canvases that can create a mood as well as pop bright colors.

Veronica Kortz recently returned from a trip to Russia.

What Russian memory will stay with you?

We glided on the water, through the Moscow rain. We visited the grand palaces of the Czars in Saint Petersburg! The Winter palace! Catherine's Palace! Paul's Palace!

We paid respects to Czar Nicholas II, his wife Alexandria and their dear martyred children. Did you sense the spirits of the past move among us? Opulent, sad, impossibly wealthy... Which Faberge egg enchanted you the most? All of the miniatures, designed with delicate precision. Art was absolutely everywhere.

At the Pushkin... We experienced French masterpieces of Impressionism... the greatest Gauguins, Bonnards, Cezannes and Matisse's... Piccasos and Van Goghs!

The Hermitage was an unstoppable feast of art! So much for our senses to take in! SWAN LAKE!! The people who sang to us during the dinner and the folkloric dance show! At the Tretyakov and Russian State Museums we discovered little-known paintings of Russian folklore! The canvases of the "Wanderers" including the unforgettable paintings of pine groves by Shishkin... the moonlit landscapes of Levitan, mural designs by Vreubel, epic history paintings by Surikov, old peasants by Kramskoi... the swirling red dancers of Malyavin.
